

Enchanted Cotswold County: John Drinkwater and the Arts and Crafts Movement

Luncheon Club 155

Friday, December 9th 2016

Dymock poet John Drinkwater had links with the Arts and Crafts Movement from his early days in Birmingham through to his time living in Far Oakridge, near Stroud, during the First World War. As a young man he was an admirer of William Morris, and then got to know the Birmingham Arts and Crafts artists, particularly Joseph Southall and Arthur Gaskin. During World War One he lived in Far Oakridge, and mixed with the Arts and Crafts designers living in the area.

Kirsty Hartsiotis will be known to many of you as The Wilson’s curator of Decorative Arts and the designated Arts and Crafts Movement Collection. Kirsty is perhaps less well-known to the Friends as a story- teller: she has published several collections and performs regularly for both children and adults.

In this talk she will combine both passions to give us ‘an escape from Christmas’ Christmas treat.

Venue: St. Matthew’s Church, Clarence Street, Cheltenham- opposite The Wilson

Time: Buffet lunch from 12 noon. Speaker 1.15- 2.15 pm Cost: £15; talk only £8

Please send the slip below together with your cheque payable to FCAGM and a sae or clearly written email address to Jan Turner, Wold’s Edge, Station Road, Woodmancote, Cheltenham, GL52 9HN.

If you have any queries, ring Jan on 01242 674140.

Luncheon Club 155

Friday, December 9th

Enchanted Cotswold County:
John Drinkwater and the Arts and Crafts Movement

I/We should like places for the talk and lunch/ and places for the for the talk only and enclose a cheque for £

Name.....Address.....

.....

Tel. email

FOR USE BY THE ORGANISER

Friday, December 9th 2016

Luncheon Club 155

Thank you for your application. I have been able/unable to allocate you ...places on the above and am therefore returning your cheque.