

The Paper Store

Kirstie Hartsiotis and Ann-Rachael Harwood

Luncheon Club Meeting 159

Tuesday, July 5th 2017

As Friends of The Wilson you know all about the Paper Store, The Wilson's archive display space. Or do you? Are you confident you could find your way there without the penguin feet to guide you? Do you know what you might find when you get there or who should you get in touch with if you had a question concerning the archive? This is your chance to find out more.

Kirstie Hartsiotis, Cultural Producer (Collections - Decorative Art) and Ann-Rachael Harwood, Cultural Producer (Collections - Human History) will talk about how they created the 2017 displays in the Paper Store. They will explore the display on the theme, "Eminent Victorians", tell us how they went cycle mad with displays to celebrate the Tour of Britain's arrival in Cheltenham, look at highlights from the The Wilson Family Collection and comment on the new Emery Walker Library display "Rebels and Reformers" which explores social change, reform and ideas of revolution through the eyes of the designers of the Arts and Crafts movement and their friends. What more could you want?

Venue: St. Matthew's Church, Clarence Street, Cheltenham - opposite The Wilson.

Time: Buffet lunch from 12 noon. Speaker 1.15- 2.15 pm. Cost: £15; talk only £8.
